Dear Mr. Reed:

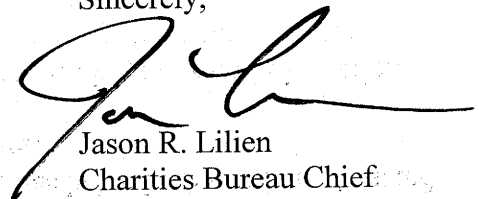

Thank you for responding to our initial request for information concerning your organization's Hurricane Sandy Relief efforts. Your response has helped the public understand how donations are benefiting the victims of this terrible disaster.

With four months having passed since Sandy, we are requesting updated information about your fundraising and relief activities to date. Attached is an updated version of our questionnaire, which we ask you to complete by March 22, 2013. This version includes a few additional questions seeking more focused responses on how donations have been spent. We are also requesting that you indicate how those affected by this disaster can apply for assistance, as so many New Yorkers remain in need.

Please email your responses to sandyresponse@ag.ny.gov. I can be reached at (212) 416-8402 if you have any questions. Responses will be posted on the Charities Bureau's website at www.charitiesnys.com.

I look forward to continuing to work with you during these challenging times.

Sincerely,

Jason R. Lilien
Charities Bureau Chief
