Grantees were identified based on the extent of the impact they are making in helping victims of Hurricane Sandy. Organizations were awarded amounts commensurate with the breadth and scope of the relief efforts they have been providing. After the organization was identified, AARP Foundation thoroughly vetted the potential grantee through third-party resources such as GuideStar and Lexis-Nexis to ensure that each organization is a Section 501(c)(3) charity in good standing before a grant was awarded.
