Hope for New York

DESCRIPTION OF EFFORTS
Please describe the types of assistance that your organization has provided to those affected by Hurricane Sandy.	Hope for New York's mission is to provide volunteer, financial resources and capacity building support to organizations that serve the poor and marginalized in New York City. Throughout the year, we support organizations that are directly serving the poor in their communities by providing volunteers, technical assistance, and financial grants. We are an intermediary organization and do not provide direct support to individuals; rather, we support the 43 non-profit organizations with whom we have partnerships and which are providing direct support to individuals in need. As a result of Hurricane Sandy, we provided a significant increase in volunteer and financial support to those organizations within our existing network of nonprofit organizations who were directly impacted by Sandy or are providing relief and recovery efforts for those in their community.
